ISLAMIC SCIENCE UNIVERSITY OF MALAYSIA

INTRODUCTION

The establishment of Islamic Science University of Malaysia (USIM), previously known as the Islamic University College of Malaysia (KUIM), was approved by the Cabinet on 11 June 1997 and was gazetted on 13 March 1998. The title, USIM, was made official on 1 February 2007. USIM is the first Institution of Higher Education established by the Malaysian Government at the turn of the 21st century.

The primary objective of USIM is to advocate and enhance Islamic Studies in education, while incorporating information and communication technology (ICT) in its academic activities, particularly in teaching and research. To realize this aim, proficiency in Arabic, English as well as in the Malay language, is an important agenda in the academic development of USIM students.

The academic programmes in USIM has developed tremendously.
